JA Virtual Opportunities

Grades: K-12

Given the extraordinary circumstances accompanying the COVID-19 pandemic and the immediate need to address the economic inequity in our communities, we have transformed our traditional In-Class programs to virtual programs so that we can still enable students throughout San Diego to find their future success. Our virtual programs include interactive learning and engagement with JA staff, volunteers and mentors from the SD business community and are available for parents/families and educators.

How JA San Diego Continues To Serve Our Students and Community

JA San Diego is adapting and evolving to continue making an impact and serving the San Diego community in response to our current climate. As part of that, we have developed more opportunities to provide all young adults access to gain the knowledge and skills necessary to prepare for their futures through work readiness, entrepreneurship and personal finance programs.
